2 Conditions and major assumptions

Conditions:

The financial information about the LLP presented in this report is included solely for the purpose to arrive at value conclusion presented in this report and it should not be used by anyone to obtain credit or for any other unintended purpose. The method adopted for doing valuation is based on representation received from the Management. Because of the limited purpose as mentioned in the report, it may be incomplete and may contain departures from generally accepted accounting principles prevailing in the country. We have not audited, reviewed or compiled the Financial Statements and express no assurance on them.

This report is only to be used in its entirety, and for the purpose stated in the report. No third parties should rely on the information or data contained in this report without the advice of their lawyer, attorney or accountant.

We acknowledge that we have no present or contemplated financial interest in the LLP. Our fees for this valuation are based upon our normal billing rates, and not contingent upon the results or the value of the business or in any other manner. We have no responsibility to modify this report for events and circumstances occurring subsequent to the date of this report.

We have, however, used conceptually sound and generally accepted methods, principles and procedures of valuation in determining the value estimate included in this report. The valuation analyst, by reason of performing this valuation and preparing this report, is not to be required to give expert testimony nor to be in attendance in court or at any government hearing with reference to the matters contained herein, unless prior arrangements have been made with the analyst regarding such additional engagement.

Assumptions:

The opinion of value given in this report is based on information provided in part by the partners of the LLP and other sources as listed in the report. This information is assumed to be accurate and complete.

We have relied upon the representations contained in the public and other documents in our possession and any other assets or liabilities except as specifically stated to the contrary in this report.

We have not attempted to confirm whether or not all assets of the business are free and clear of liens and encumbrances, or that the owner has good title to all the assets.

We have also assumed that the business will be operated prudently and that there are no unforeseen adverse changes in the economic conditions affecting the business, the market, or the industry. This report presumes that the partners of the LLP will maintain the character and integrity of the LLP through sale, reorganization or reduction of any owner's/manager's participation in the existing activities of the LLP.

We have been informed by the partners that there are no environmental or toxic contamination problems. We have assumed that no costs or expenses will be incurred in connection with such liabilities, except as explicitly stated in this report.

6 Valuation Methodology and approach

Valuation methodology

The application of any particular method of valuation depends on the purpose for which the valuation is done. Although different values may exist for different purposes, it cannot be too strongly emphasized that a valuer can only arrive at one value for one purpose.

In the instant case, we have considered Net Asset Value Method prescribed for Income Tax Purpose.

We have conducted the valuation in accordance with the Net Asset Value method based on the Audited Financial statement of the LLP as on 06th July, 2024.

“Balance-Sheet” in relation to an Indian LLP, the balance-sheet of such LLP (including the notes annexed thereto and forming part of the accounts) as drawn up on the valuation date which has been audited by the auditor of the LLP appointed under the laws relating to LLP in force. As Audited financials as on valuation date was available as on 06th July, 2024. Accordingly, We have considered Audited Financial as on 06/07/2024.

Relevant date: Relevant date of valuation is considered as 06.07.2024 being the date of Business Transfer.

Our choice of methodology and valuation has been arrived using usual and conventional methodologies adopted for purposes of a similar nature and our reasonable judgment, in an independent and bona fide manner based on our previous experience of assignments of similar nature.

Keeping in mind the context and purpose of the Report, we have used the Net Asset method to value business of LLP.

Net Assets Method (Refer Annexure 1)
